The safety of the vessel and its crews is the sole, and inescapable and ultimate responsibility of the Skipper. The suitability of the vessel for the weather expected during the course of the race, is the responsibility of the Skipper, as is the sole decision to start or continue the race. The Skipper shall be responsible for the vessel, its handling and safety, and the conduct of its crew while ashore as guests of the Key Biscayne Yacht Club and compliance with the Sailing Instructions. It is the responsibility of the Skipper to ensure that his crew is familiar with these conditions of the race.

In consideration for your accepting my entry: I hereby agree to all the conditions for this race, which I have read and understood. I have evaluated the condition of my vessel, the abilities of my crew, am generally familiar with yacht racing of the type and quality manifested within this regatta, am familiar with the waters over which the course this race is scheduled and have made the decision that my vessel and crew are suitable to this race. I do for myself and my executors, or administrators, heirs and assigns, waive any and all claim as may occur to me or them against the Key Biscayne Yacht Club, their officers, members, employees, agents, or Race Committee arising out of the participation of my vessel in this regatta, or arise from any related activities.
